

Week's Social Happenings in Towns and State

BINGHAM.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Jones was attractively decorated with a profusion of nasturtiums and chrysanthemums Thursday evening, the occasion being the entertainment of the Whist club. Tally cards and table markers of green pumpkins were most appropriate for the season. Mrs. Marriott, E. E. Dodley, Mrs. J. W. Jones, and Mrs. G. W. Jones, the lucky prize winners, while congratulations were being tendered, Mrs. Jones, who had been ill, was the guest of honor. An elaborate supper suggestive of the season was served. Charles Nutting spent the week with friends in the city.

R. L. Herriot, the popular Socialist candidate for mayor, is resting a few days in the city preparing for the final struggle on Tuesday.

Miss Elma Hanson of Salt Lake has been visiting A. J. Peterson and family of Highland Boy during the past week. V. S. Anderson and family left camp Saturday and will locate temporarily in Salt Lake.

Miss Clever of Salt Lake is visiting her relatives, Mrs. Nettie Mitchell and family, for the week.

The Woman's Unity club will meet on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 6, at the home of Mrs. John J. Jones.

Mrs. Luther Wakeman and baby are visiting for a few days with friends at the capital.

Mrs. James Richards of Upper Bingham was a visitor to Salt Lake Sunday.

Mrs. C. H. Lashbrook returned on Sunday to Salt Lake, after several days' stay in camp.

Dr. J. K. N. Brecken and Oliver Brecken were guests of Mrs. Nettie Mitchell during the week.

Dr. and Mrs. Matt Rothwell and Miss Wille were visitors to the metropolis during the week.

Mrs. Marks of Sapperton county has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Larson of Markham county.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Jones, sr., will entertain the Thursday Whist club at their home Nov. 4.

Miss Ruth Bourgard came up from Salt Lake Saturday for a short stay in camp.

Mrs. William Wilcox and daughter, Miss Mildred, spent Saturday in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Charles Adams of Copperton was a Salt Lake visitor the early part of last week.

David Johnson of Colorado, and brother of Mrs. Hattie Larson, will leave on the 10th of the month for a visit to this camp.

Miss Emma McKillop and Mr. and Mrs. Emil Jensen of Highland Boy, returned home Sunday from a brief stay at the capital.

Mrs. R. W. Glenn has been on a visit during the past week to Wallburg, Wash. county, Utah.

Mrs. S. K. Bush spent Saturday at the capital.

Mrs. Ida Butcher and children are visiting city friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Luce were visitors to the city Monday.

R. Treniman and family have returned from a brief stay in Nevada.

Mrs. William Hill and children came in Monday from a short stay in Nevada.

John E. Hooley and William T. Hooley, who have been residents of this camp for some time past, left on Saturday and will reside in Zion in the future.

Lewis Olsen and family of Poplar Grove moved to Copperton the first of the week, where they will permanently reside.

Mrs. George E. Lee left Monday on an extended trip east, and will visit friends and relatives in Wisconsin, and on her way will visit in Chicago, Idaho and southern Utah.

Mrs. Jones of Salt Lake has been the guest of Mrs. A. W. Forman for a few days, and was a guest of the Whist club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Jones Thursday evening.

TINTIC.

Eugene Black and wife returned from Nephin on Sunday.

Mrs. Baumer returned on Monday after a few days' visit at Salt Lake.

Twins, both girls, were born to Mr. and Mrs. John Bergman on Monday.

Mrs. C. E. Huish and Miss Marcella Sullivan went to Salt Lake yesterday for a brief visit.

Emil Jackson and Anna Peterson have been granted a marriage license by the county clerk, and they will be married in this city tomorrow.

Mrs. M. R. E. Sullivan returned Tuesday night from a visit with her mother at Payson.

Mrs. William Whithill went to Payson Tuesday for a ten days' visit with her parents.

William Ferguson has been at Salt Lake during the week, as his wife is quite seriously ill at the Holy Cross hospital.

S. J. Scheller returned home on Saturday night after an absence of a week spent in looking after his ranch and other property in Summit county.

Mrs. L. S. Allcock returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. L. S. Allcock returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. L. S. Allcock returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. L. S. Allcock returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. L. S. Allcock returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. L. S. Allcock returned home on Sunday.

Mrs. L. S. Allcock returned home on Sunday.

Tuesday night from Salt Lake. Her sister, Mrs. William Ferguson, was operated upon at the Holy Cross hospital, and is now reported to be recovering nicely.

Miss Genevieve Sullivan returned yesterday from a visit at Salt Lake.

William Tindler and wife of Silver City are the parents of a baby boy, born on Wednesday.

Mike Sullivan, who has been at Butte for the past few years, is in town visiting his mother.

Miss Ethel Wright and Miss Bertha McPherson are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George McCune.

Mrs. George Schaeffling left last Saturday for Ogden, where she was the guest of friends for several days.

Mrs. Elmo Moore came over from Nephin last night for a visit with her parents.

Mrs. and Mrs. George Hickman. The teachers of the public school enjoyed a skating party at the Elks' pavilion Tuesday afternoon from 4 until 8 o'clock.

Mrs. John Mathews, who has been ill at Salt Lake for some time, was able to leave the hospital last Saturday and is now visiting friends at Provo.

Mrs. T. A. Thurmond was up from Provo to visit this week.

Mr. and Mrs. "Sis" Taylor entertained the former's brother, Charles Taylor of Denver, during the week.

Mrs. C. E. Huish and Miss Frances returned on Saturday evening from a few days' visit at Salt Lake.

James Crooks and family returned on Sunday from a four days' outing near Lemington. They made the trip by team.

Mrs. H. W. Morse left on Sunday for Goldfield, Nev., where she will spend a few weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Spillman.

Samuel P. Jensen of the Centennial-Eureka mine was taken to the St. Mark's hospital at Salt Lake on Sunday. He is suffering from heart trouble. His brother accompanied him to the hospital.

Dr. J. W. Dryden, who has been in Washington and Oregon for four years, will stop off here next week for a few days' visit with old friends. Dr. Dryden is on route to New York, where he will take a post graduate course in medicine.

Samuel P. Jensen of the Centennial-Eureka mine was taken to the St. Mark's hospital at Salt Lake on Sunday. He is suffering from heart trouble. His brother accompanied him to the hospital.

Dr. J. W. Dryden, who has been in Washington and Oregon for four years, will stop off here next week for a few days' visit with old friends. Dr. Dryden is on route to New York, where he will take a post graduate course in medicine.

Samuel P. Jensen of the Centennial-Eureka mine was taken to the St. Mark's hospital at Salt Lake on Sunday. He is suffering from heart trouble. His brother accompanied him to the hospital.

Dr. J. W. Dryden, who has been in Washington and Oregon for four years, will stop off here next week for a few days' visit with old friends. Dr. Dryden is on route to New York, where he will take a post graduate course in medicine.

Samuel P. Jensen of the Centennial-Eureka mine was taken to the St. Mark's hospital at Salt Lake on Sunday. He is suffering from heart trouble. His brother accompanied him to the hospital.

Dr. J. W. Dryden, who has been in Washington and Oregon for four years, will stop off here next week for a few days' visit with old friends. Dr. Dryden is on route to New York, where he will take a post graduate course in medicine.

Samuel P. Jensen of the Centennial-Eureka mine was taken to the St. Mark's hospital at Salt Lake on Sunday. He is suffering from heart trouble. His brother accompanied him to the hospital.

Dr. J. W. Dryden, who has been in Washington and Oregon for four years, will stop off here next week for a few days' visit with old friends. Dr. Dryden is on route to New York, where he will take a post graduate course in medicine.

Samuel P. Jensen of the Centennial-Eureka mine was taken to the St. Mark's hospital at Salt Lake on Sunday. He is suffering from heart trouble. His brother accompanied him to the hospital.

Dr. J. W. Dryden, who has been in Washington and Oregon for four years, will stop off here next week for a few days' visit with old friends. Dr. Dryden is on route to New York, where he will take a post graduate course in medicine.

Samuel P. Jensen of the Centennial-Eureka mine was taken to the St. Mark's hospital at Salt Lake on Sunday. He is suffering from heart trouble. His brother accompanied him to the hospital.

Dr. J. W. Dryden, who has been in Washington and Oregon for four years, will stop off here next week for a few days' visit with old friends. Dr. Dryden is on route to New York, where he will take a post graduate course in medicine.

Samuel P. Jensen of the Centennial-Eureka mine was taken to the St. Mark's hospital at Salt Lake on Sunday. He is suffering from heart trouble. His brother accompanied him to the hospital.

Dr. J. W. Dryden, who has been in Washington and Oregon for four years, will stop off here next week for a few days' visit with old friends. Dr. Dryden is on route to New York, where he will take a post graduate course in medicine.

Samuel P. Jensen of the Centennial-Eureka mine was taken to the St. Mark's hospital at Salt Lake on Sunday. He is suffering from heart trouble. His brother accompanied him to the hospital.

This week to meet his wife, who has been visiting here and at Joseph.

Mrs. Francis Jensen of Mt. Pleasant is visiting in Richfield this week with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Jones celebrated their silver wedding in a very pleasant manner last Saturday evening. A delicious supper was served by Mrs. Jones. Miss Maude Jones, assisted by Miss Christensen, Mrs. Jonathan Lloyd and Miss Jeannette Jones, assisted by Miss Maude Jones, were the guests of honor.

The Citizens' party will entertain Monday evening with a dance at the Trocadero. An orchestra composed of sixteen pieces will furnish the music for the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Farrow has returned to her home in Bingham after a stay of two weeks with relatives in this city.

Mrs. M. Hill has been spending the first part of this week with relatives in Springville.

L. Perry, formerly of this place, but now of Tooele, was in Murray the latter part of the week visiting with old friends.

W. Cane leaves shortly for England, where he will labor in the mission field.

Miss Annie Jarvis of Spanish Fork, who has been visiting with relatives in this city for the past month, will leave Wednesday for her home in that city.

Mrs. J. R. Miller and Mrs. L. M. Miller left Friday evening over the Salt Lake route for Los Angeles, where they go to spend the winter months.

Quite a number of parties took place in this city Thursday evening, the most enjoyable being the spook dance given by the members of the Jolly Good Fellow club.

The second meeting of the Young Men's Mutual Improvement association was held at the L. D. S. church on "Fine street" Tuesday evening. An interesting program was carried out and some excellent selections were rendered.

Mrs. A. A. Bird is expected home shortly from California, where she has been spending some time.

Miss Packard has left for her home in Springville, after a pleasant stay of one week.

E. Fish leaves Friday for a winter stay in southern California.

D. Hughes is home from Denver, where he has been visiting with his friends and relatives.

F. C. Thomas, formerly of this place, but now of Ely, Nev., is in town shaking hands with his old friends and former acquaintances.

Fred Davis leaves the latter part of this month for England, where he goes to labor in the mission field.

Mrs. Albert Cahoon is pleasantly settled at Bellevue, Ida., where she intends spending the winter months.

J. Kramer leaves shortly for a trip abroad. While away he will visit in Europe and Norway.

Edwin Bush of the O. S. L. left Monday for his home in Pleasant Grove, where he expects to remain for one month before returning.

L. Lander leaves the coming week for Los Angeles to spend the winter months. J. Ellason, who has been visiting here with his family for the past three months, left the fore part of the week for Ely, Nev.

Miss Thews is expected home shortly from Spokane, where she has been spending the past month with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Walters are now comfortably settled in their new home at Payson.

Mrs. Lawrence has left for Ely to join her husband, who is stationed there.

Jolly Halloween parties occupied the attention of Murray society Thursday evening. The parties given were numerous and the diversions and frolics engaged in were varied. Jack o' lanterns made up most of the decorations.

The Twentieth Century club, a popular local ladies' organization, gave an enjoyable Halloween party Thursday evening at the residence of Mrs. Augustus Wall. Nearly all the members were present accompanied by their husbands or gentlemen friends. An evening of games, music, with a nice spread of luncheon, was much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gunderson, who have spent a couple of weeks here on a short honeymoon trip, left early in the week for Levan, where they expect to reside in the future.

J. M. Hayden spent a couple of days in Salt Lake this week.

Miss Eva Barton went to Springville this week expecting to remain some time. The Young Ladies' Aid society, of the north ward gave one of the most enjoyable dancing parties of the year Tuesday evening. It was a Halloween affair, and a number of special features were given.

J. E. Gibbs of Marysville spent several days of the week in Mt. Pleasant on his way home from Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Madison are visiting in Ogden since early in the week.

N. S. Nielsen went to Salt Lake Monday to remain some time.

Mrs. F. McIntosh was given a surprise party at her home Friday evening by a crowd of relatives and friends.

A jolly good time was had by all the usual announcements and a fine supper were supplied. The occasion was in honor of the lady's birthday.

Sheriff John Knudsen has been up from Mant during the week.

Mr. S. N. Nielsen has spent most of the week in Salt Lake City.

Miss Bertha Tuft is home from Salt Lake, where she has spent the past summer.

Mrs. T. Ivis was a visitor in Salt Lake during the early part of the week.

The teachers of the public schools gave an interesting program at the North ward meeting of the week in Logan.

The family of C. Burelon, local D. & R. G. agent, came down from Salt Lake this week to remain some time.

Senator Reed Smoot spent Saturday in Lehi and with J. M. Kirkham, made a visit to Pelican Point.

Celesta Sawyer entertained Mesdames Julia Farnsworth, Isabel Sears, Rachel Campbell, May Lott, Lydia Shale, Lela Bone and Miss May Lott at luncheon Saturday.

Miss Mabel Goates, one of the district school teachers, is confined to her home with a bad case of grippe.

Prof. Howard Briggs of the University of Utah delivered a lecture at parents' meeting Wednesday evening.

Miss Hannah Evans of Rigby, Ida., is visiting here.

Bishop James H. Gardner spent Friday at the Brigham Young university in Provo.

The Commercial club will give a social party in their club rooms Nov. 3. Mrs. K. N. Evans, J. M. Kirkham, Mesdames J. A. Smith, T. J. Wadsworth and John Roberts are the committee on the affair.

Lois Olmstead, after an absence of ten years, in the Teton basin, Idaho, has returned home.

Mrs. Sidney Glickist and Miss Marjann Thurman gave a Halloween party Thursday evening.

George Beck, of Eureka, has been spending the past week visiting relatives in Lehi.

S. W. Ross entertained Friday evening at progressive flinch in honor of Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Stookey.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Anderson left for Rexburg, Ida., for an extended visit.

Mr. George E. Kirkham, who has been visiting here for several weeks, left this week for Raymond, Canada.

MURRAY.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Miller returned Sunday evening from Los Angeles, where they have been for the past month on an outing trip.

Mrs. S. Baker, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Atwood, for the past week, has returned to her home in Ogden.

P. Petersen, formerly of this city, but now of Ely, Nev., spent a few days this week in town shaking hands with old acquaintances.

Miss Geneva Hyde returned to her home Saturday.

Another Case of Cancer Cured

Syracuse, Kan.—The family and friends of Mrs. J. M. Grissom are rejoicing over her wonderful recovery from a bad cancer of the breast, after her regular doctor had pronounced her incurable.

Dr. L. T. Leach of Indianapolis, Ind., who wrote the doctor, who came on to see her and consented to take her case. He started her at once to using Cancel, which she was able to apply herself at home.

It is only natural that Mrs. Grissom, who is now as well as she ever was, cannot say enough in praise of Dr. Leach and his wonderful remedy.

She urges everyone afflicted to write for Dr. Leach's 100-page book on cancer, which is free for the asking.

Professor James T. Jardine, who has been stationed at Wallawa, Ore., during the summer, is visiting friends here before proceeding to Wallawa, where he will spend the winter.

Mrs. Thomas Humphreys left for Oregon, Cal., on Sunday evening, to join her husband, who is employed there.

Attorney Jesse R. S. Budge of Salt Lake City spent the fore part of the week in Lehi.

Mrs. Sarah Daines of Carleton, Canada, visited friends and relatives in Logan and visited this week.

Mrs. N. W. Kimball, jr., left here this week for Los Angeles, where she will join her husband.

Anthony Pearson left here on Tuesday for Scandinavia, where he will fill a mission.

Booker Preston visited with Salt Lake friends this week.

PROVO SOCIETY.

Miss Zina Baker of this city entertained in honor of Paula Siefert of Salt Lake Thursday evening. The time was spent in games and music, and all present spent a most enjoyable evening.

The Priscilla club met at the home of Miss Grace Peterson Thursday evening. The girls spent most of the time with their fancy work, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. Myron Gudmundson of Preston, Ida., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Albert Knudsen.

Miss Sidona Olsen of Mant spent the first part of the week in Provo visiting friends and school chums.

The Fallas club entertained at the home of Miss Bertha Barney Wednesday evening. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Miss Altha Kimball is visiting friends in Provo this week.

Possibly the finest entertainment of the week was a Halloween party given by the Mutual Improvement association of the Third ward Wednesday evening. The meeting house was decorated in the most gorgeous manner imaginable. Those who attended the party were forced to enter through a window in the basement and were then ushered through the various rooms, dark tunnels and mystic walks by the goblins and ghosts.

After having spent the evening in the program a delicious supper was served. The E. E. University orchestra furnished the music during the evening.

Mrs. George Gilles gave a surprise party in honor of her husband Wednesday evening. The time was spent in games and music.

WANTED.

First-class field collectors. Apply Consolidated Wagon & Machine company, Salt Lake, Ogden and Idaho Falls. None but the best accepted. Good wages.

Ask your grocers for the Vienna Walnut Bread.

Ask your grocers for the Vienna Walnut Bread.

Ask your grocers for the Vienna Walnut Bread.

Ask your grocers for the Vienna Walnut Bread.

Ask your grocers for the Vienna Walnut Bread.

Ask your grocers for the Vienna Walnut Bread.

Ask your grocers for the Vienna Walnut Bread.

Ask your grocers for the Vienna Walnut Bread.

Ask your grocers for the Vienna Walnut Bread.

HOTEL KNUTSFORD BUILDING

SPECIAL SALE

Monday, Tuesday

and Wednesday

Sable Brown Fur Coats

All Styles and Sizes, Worth $50.00

Special $25.00 Special

A Small Deposit Will Secure Your Early Selection.

OPEN EVENINGS

HOTEL KNUTSFORD BUILDING

Clothing Sale at Barton's

300 Handsome Suits and Overcoats from leading New York Makers; in plain colors, new novelty checks, stripes and mixtures that are selling at sight.

At a Saving of 25 per cent

Boys' School Suits, Boys' Long Trousers, 14 to 20, Boys' Short Trousers, sizes 6 to 17.

Popular Clothiers to Men and Boys

45-47 Main St.

$14.00 CIGARS

For a brand-new gentlemen's open-face gold-filled watch, 17-jeweled Rockford movement, that is guaranteed to keep excellent time, in 20-year 14k gold-filled cases, handsomely engraved or perfectly plain.

Would you cut down your smoking expense? Of course you would. Instead of smoking 10c and 15c cigars, buy the PURITAN for 5c.

The taste is good, the aroma is good, and you will get the same pleasant satisfaction out of it as out of a more expensive smoke.

$2.00 per box.

GODBE-PITTS DRUG CO.

Is all it costs to have men's clothes kept cleaned and pressed.

Call up 1133 and ask about it.

TEMPLETON Cleaning Co.

Main Office N. E. Cor. First South and State.

Branch Office 112 East Second South.

Is all it costs to have men's clothes kept cleaned and pressed.

Call up 1133 and ask about it.

TEMPLETON Cleaning Co.

Main Office N. E. Cor. First South and State.